Updated: April 12, 2023

1 Introduction

This privacy policy (the “Policy”) applies to Prompt Sapper, promptsapper.tech, aichain.store and aichain.online websites (collectively “Prompt Sapper”). Prompt Sapper is an AI chain integrated development environment (IDE) that provides fundamental supports for AI chain engineer to develop, share and trade their AI services through our visual programming tool and marketplace.

As used in this Policy, “personal data” means any information that relates to, describe, could be used to identify an individual, directly or indirectly.

Applicability: This Policy applies to personal data that Prompt Sapper collects, uses, and disclose and which may includes: (1) data collected through the Services; (2) data collected through the Prompt Sapper, aichain.store, promptsapper.tech and aichain.online websites; (3) data collected from third party sources. Third party sources may include, but not limited to: public datasets, commercial data sources, and the public internet.

Prompt Sapper will not collect the private API keys, include but not limited to OpenAI API keys, and your prompts.

Changes: We may updates this Policy from time-to-time to reflect changes in legal, regulatory, operational requirements, our practices, and other factors. Please check this Policy periodical for updates. If any of the changes are unacceptable to you, you should cease interacting with us. When required under applicable law, we will notify you of any changes to this Policy.

Definitions: Through this Policy, You, or Your means the individual accessing or using the Service, or the company, or other legal entity on behalf of which such individual is accessing or using the Service, as applicable. Company (referred to as either “the Company”, “We”, “Us” or “Our” in this Agreement) refers to Prompt Sapper. Usage Data refers to data collected automatically, either generated by the use of the Service or from the Service infrastructure itself (for example, the duration of a page visit).

2 Types of Data Collected

While interacting with the Services, you may provide certain personally identifiable information that could be used to contact or identify you.

Personally identifiable information you provide may include, but is not limited to:

- User Content: When you use our Services, we may collect Personal Information that is included in the feedback that you provide to our Services.
- Communication Information: If you communicate with us, we may collect your name, contact information, and the contents of any messages you send.

Personally Information we automatically receive from your Use of the Services include, but not limited to:

- Log Data: information that your browser automatically sends whenever you use our website. Log data includes, your IP address, the date and time of your request and how you interact with our websites.

- Usage Data: We may automatically collect information about your use of the Services, such as the types of contents you view or engage with, the features you use and the actions you take, as well as your time zone, country, the dates and times of access, and the like.
- Cookies
- Analytics: We may use a variety of online analytics products that use cookies to help us analyze how users use our Services and enhance your experience when you use the Services.

We do not collect any AI chain and prompts information unless you agree to publish in our Marketplace. Otherwise, all AI chain and prompts will be developed and saved in your local devices. We only help to transit the data to the corresponding services (like OpenAI) to assist debugging and use.
